

William F. Camp, CFA

*Managing Partner, President
& Chief Compliance Officer*

Investment Experience: 30 years
Years with Firm: 23 years

As President and a founding member of LSIA, Bill leads the firm toward a successful implementation of his vision - giving every client comprehensive, customized portfolio management with integrity and transparency. Bill directs overall business operations nationwide as well as approving and overseeing the execution of the firm's strategic, operational and business development initiatives. He also acts as Chief Compliance Officer and handles the firm's financial, accounting and legal matters.

Prior to starting LSIA, Bill was President of Portfolio Management Partners, a former division of Natixis Asset Management Advisors, LP (2006-2008) and Director of the Investment Counseling Group at Loomis, Sayles & Company, LP (2002-2006). Bill joined Loomis Sayles in 1995 as a fixed income portfolio manager and advanced quickly through positions of increased responsibility. His accomplishments as a portfolio manager include managing the Loomis Sayles Core Fixed Income Investment Trust and leading quantitative research for both fixed income and equity products.

Before joining Loomis Sayles, Bill served a dual role as portfolio manager and investment manager at Kmart Corporation International Headquarters in Troy, Michigan. At Kmart, he was responsible for managing in-house pension assets invested in fixed income and derivative-based S&P 500 Index portfolios. He was also relied upon to research, recommend and retain quality investment services. Bill's experience as a business leader, a portfolio manager and a purchaser of investment services brings a broad and unique perspective to the leadership of LSIA.
