

Kristine M. Hollister

Partner & Director, Business Management

Investment-related Experience: 21 years

Years with Firm: 18 years

As Director, Business Management and a founding member of LSIA, Kristine oversees the daily management of the firm, including business administration, human resources, compliance and accounting/tax matters. She works closely with LSIA's President to ensure that the firm meets its short- and long-term business and financial goals and Chief Compliance Officer to ensure that the firm meets its compliance and regulatory requirements.

Kristine also oversees the firm's corporate communications and provides marketing support for business development initiatives nationwide. She focuses on providing investment professionals with relevant and timely resources, including customized marketing literature, newsletters, website content, questionnaires and Requests For Proposals.

Prior to starting LSIA, Kristine was a Vice President, Marketing Coordinator for Portfolio Management Partners, a former division of Natixis Asset Management Advisors, LP (2006-2008) and Loomis, Sayles & Company, LP (2000-2006). Before joining Loomis Sayles, she was a Senior Marketing Coordinator with Banc One Investment Advisors (1997-2000). In these roles, she promoted investment capabilities to the institutional, individual and/or consultant markets through the timely completion of questionnaires, Request For Proposals and new business presentations. Kristine worked closely with compliance officers to ensure all material met approved regulatory guidelines. She was also directly responsible for sales support, promotional merchandise and event planning/management.

EDUCATION AND ACCREDITATIONS

BS - Oakland University

AGS - Macomb Community College

Broadcasting Certification

- Specs Howard School of Media Arts

Years with Firm include tenure at LSIA; Portfolio Management Partners (formerly a division of Natixis Asset Management Advisors, LP, now Ostrum Asset Management); and Loomis, Sayles & Company, LP. Both Loomis, Sayles & Company, LP and Ostrum Asset Management are affiliates of Natixis Investment Managers.